Old Orchard House, July 15.

Dear Wife: 1875

Since I mailed my letter to you this morning, it has occurred to me that I can take the Isles of Shoals on my way home on Saturday, join Frank at Portsmouth or at Appledore Island, and spend the Sunday there. So you will not look for me till Monday. On Saturday afternoon, ride over to Cambridgeport, and bring Anna and the babe with you and keep them and George till I get back.

In haste,

Ever yours,

W. L. G.
